Cookies Policy

Effective Date: [05 March, 2025]

VTI3.net ("we," "us," or "our") uses Cookies to provide you with the best possible experience on our websites and applications. This Cookies Policy explains how and why we use Cookies, which types of Cookies we use, how long they remain active, and how you can control or manage them. For further details on how we handle your personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

1. What Is a Cookie?

A Cookie is a small text file (usually composed of letters and numbers) that is placed on your computer, tablet, smartphone, or other device (collectively referred to as "device") when you visit our website or use our applications. Cookies help us identify your device and collect certain information about how you interact with our website, products, and services. This information allows us to:

- Facilitate essential operations on our website and applications.
- Enhance and personalize your browsing experience.
- Analyze traffic and user behavior to improve our platform, products, and services.
- Maintain a secure and reliable environment for all users.

2. Purpose of Using Cookies

We use Cookies to:

1. Operate Our Services: Certain Cookies are necessary to ensure our website and applications function properly (e.g., security features, session management).
2. Improve Website Performance: Cookies help us measure how visitors interact with our site, identify popular pages, and address issues to improve user experience.
3. Protect Your Security: Some Cookies help authenticate your identity, prevent fraud, and protect your account information and transactions.
4. Understand User Preferences: By analyzing aggregated usage data, we can better tailor our features or content to user needs.

3. Types of Cookies We Use

Below are the primary categories of Cookies used on VTI3.net:

3.1 Strictly Necessary Cookies

- These Cookies are essential for the website to function and cannot be disabled in our systems.
- They are typically set in response to actions you take, such as logging in, filling out forms, or setting privacy preferences.

- While you can configure your browser to block or alert you about these Cookies, doing so may cause certain parts of the website to not function correctly.

3.2 Performance/Analytics Cookies

- These Cookies allow us to track site usage and measure website performance.

- They help us understand which sections of our website are most frequently visited, how users navigate our site, and where we can improve the user experience.

- Information collected by these Cookies is aggregated and generally does not directly identify you (i.e., it is used in an anonymous manner).

3.3 Security Cookies

- Security Cookies authenticate users, prevent fraud, and safeguard your data.

- They may also help you detect spam, fraud, or abuse by analyzing patterns or suspicious behaviors.

> Note: Depending on your region's legal requirements, we may request your consent before using any non-essential Cookies (e.g., performance/analytics or marketing Cookies).

4. Cookies We Use

The table below lists some of the Cookies that may be stored on your device when you use our services:

TOOL / DOMAIN	COOKIE TYPE	PURPOSE	APPLICABLE POLICY
`app.vti3.net`	Performance/Analytics Cookie	- May personalize user settings or remember browsing history. - Helps us understand user preferences and improve service experience.	Cookie Policy & Privacy Policy

> Note: This list may not be exhaustive. We may use additional Cookies for security, login sessions, or other operational purposes. Third-party Cookies (e.g., for analytics) may also appear in your browser if we integrate external services.

5. Duration of Cookies in Your Browser

Session Cookies remain active only while your browser is open, and they are typically deleted once you close it.
Persistent Cookies remain on your device until they expire or you manually delete them. Persistent Cookies help us recognize you or your preferences each time you return to our site.

6. Managing Cookies

1. Cookie Consent Preferences:

- You can choose to enable or disable certain categories of Cookies (where legally applicable) by using our Cookie management settings on the website. This includes both our own Cookies and third-party Cookies.

2. Browser Controls:

- You can manage Cookies at any time using your browser settings (commonly found in "Help," "Tools," or "Edit").

- Disabling or deleting certain Cookies may impact your experience on VTI3.net. Some website features or services may not function correctly.

3. Third-Party Cookies:

- If you choose to block or remove third-party Cookies, you may continue to see generic, non-personalized content or have limited functionality of certain services.

7. Cookie Policy Updates

We may update or modify this Cookie Policy periodically to reflect changes to the Cookies we use or for legal, regulatory, or operational reasons. After any such update:

- You will be notified or prompted to review the updated Cookie Policy upon your next visit to our website.

- You may revisit this page at any time to check for the latest information on our Cookie practices.

8. Contact Us

If you have questions regarding our use of Cookies or the processing of your personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy or reach out to us at:

Email: info@vti3.net

For certain requests, we may require additional verification to ensure only the rightful owner of the data can access or modify it.
